Dear Sir,

Your D.O.No.C.B.4298-107-22-of the 30th inst. Many thanks. I am glad to note that I am entitled to six months' furlough on full average salary under the new rules. I suppose the Government will have no objection if the University permits me to enjoy the leave on full average salary that I draw at the University. I am putting the matter before the University and shall let you hear as soon as they communicate to me such resolution as the Syndicate may arrive at.

Yours sincerely,

S. Krishnaswami Iyengar which University is Mr. S. Krishnaswami Iyengar referring to?

Perhaps Madras University, as he refers to Syndicate also. As the whole amount of the leave allowances has to be paid by the Madras University, there seems to be no objection if they themselves sanction a higher rate.

Certainly the Madras University-of which Mr. S. Krishnaswami Iyengar is meant?

The point is whether Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar is paying leave contribution

The C.B. file containing letter no 3460 of 1st Decr 1922 which deals with the question of leave allowances is put up. Dr. Vishnawamianagar is not paying any leave contributions & the Mysore University has to bear the share of leave allowances corresponding to the service rendered to that body by Dr. X. Yengar (i.e. since 1st April 1914) ~~to 6 months leave under the Mysore University~~ has to pay the leave allowances for the period of 6 months now applied for. The leave allowances have to be calculated on the pay to which

Dr. Vishnawamianagar is entitled as Professor of History (Supernumerary) in the Mysore University, i.e. 551-9-10 (average salary).

But Dr. X. Menkar is drawing a pay of Rs 900 from 1st Nov. 22 in the grade 500-50-1000, in the Madras university. He says that he is requesting the Madras university to permit him to enjoy the leave on full average salary calculated on the salary he draws in that university.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your D.O. No.4-B 86/C.V. dated the 17th inst. The Syndicate are unable to grant me the leave on full pay for which I applied. I am therefore driven to the only alternative course left open to me of going on without leave, and manage it as best as I can with them. It may be that I am able to get their permission to do my work out of Madras for a part of the term that I may not be lecturing in Madras. That seems to be the only possible course and I shall have to be satisfied with that. I am therefore writing to them in that sense as with the new University's Act coming on and being brought into force probably at the commencement of the next term it may be that they are really inconvenienced having to let me go on leave. I feel that the transition is an awkward time to press my claims and fight for my rights.

Thanking you all the same,

Yours sincerely.
